

How they live ?

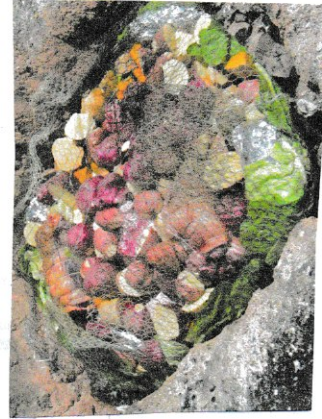

- they are fighter, kept tribal wars for lands and narrow resources

• Wharenui is an assembly hall
food: Hāngī is a dish out of fish

- they eat chicken and root vegetable like Kumara

- prepared

Food in an earth oven

tradition

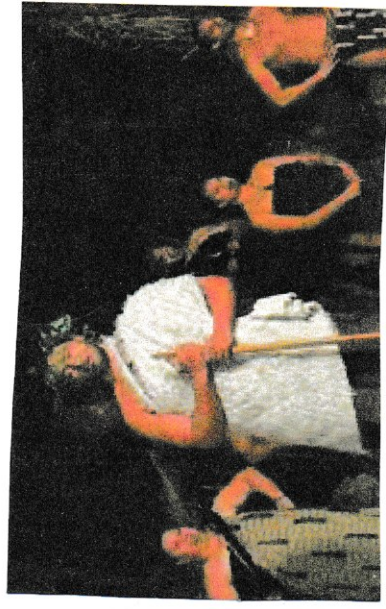

- Haka is a war dance, today they do it on celebrations and as a welcome for visitors
- they make a lot of art
- Moko are face tattoos
- Poi is juggling with balls, which are bound together with ropes → performance from women to delight men

fun fact

- tongue is a sign of magnitude and might

MAORI PEOPLE

Introduction

- Who they are ?
- How they look like ?
- Where they live ?
- How many give it of them ?
- How they live ?
- tradition
- fun fact